

Ladies Cooking Class Coordinator

Position Description:

Teach interested ladies new ideas for easy to prepare meals at home, parts of which can be used in other meals later in the week.

Qualifications:

- Christian adult female
- Skilled in cooking and able to instruct and coordinate small cooking groups
- Ability to work with others and delegate
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Capable of team building

Responsibilities:

- Conduct a 2-4 hour cooking class at the church building once a month (depending upon interest).
- Work with the Internal Communications deacon and church secretary to schedule available dates and times.
- Work with the Internal Communications deacon to communicate the schedule to the congregation.
- Inform participants of the supplies they must bring (there should be no cost to the Cary church of Christ)
- Set-up and clean-up of kitchen facilities.
- Ensure the building is accessible and that it is locked and the alarm system armed at the completion of class.

Ministry Deacon Contact:

Steve Bertini

Time Commitment:

2-4 hours per class plus preparation and set-up/clean-up time

Revised 2/23/11